(U) San Francisco – Increased Security Coming to San Francisco Pride After Orlando Rampage

(U) The FBI reached out to San Francisco police after this weekend's massacre at a gay nightclub in Orlando to offer added security for the upcoming Pride celebrations, while San Francisco's police chief expressed concern about the prospect of a "copycat" shooting. San Francisco Pride is one of the biggest events of its kind in the country, with an expected draw of around 1 million people.

(U) San Diego – Man Gets Prison for Using Minors to Smuggle Heroin

(U) A 24-year-old man was sentenced to 70 months in prison for recruiting and guiding minors across the San Ysidro border crossing with bundles of heroin hidden under their clothes, the US Attorney's Office said. He admitted at the time that he was paid to guide at least six minors into the U.S. through the San Ysidro pedestrian crossing on 10 occasions, the US Attorney's Office said. He also admitted he was at a home in Tijuana when the bundles were strapped to the bodies of the minors.

(U) Yuba City – Courthouse Data Breach Exposes Personal Information

(U) A data breach of a new case management system that went live yesterday morning exposed the private personal information of potentially thousands of people on public access computers in the Sutter County Superior Courthouse. The system was taken down yesterday afternoon after a reporter alerted the Court Executive Officer that sensitive and private information was viewable to the public. For about six hours, anyone who searched for a criminal or traffic case on public access computers could view the defendant's Social Security number, birthday, driver's license number and home address.

(U) South Carolina – US Judge Orders Jury Trial for Accused Charleston Church Shooter

(U) Charleston – The man accused of killing nine parishioners in a racially motivated attack at a South Carolina church last June will face a trial by jury rather than a judge. Federal prosecutors, who intend to seek the death penalty over the killings objected to the request in a court filing yesterday, records show. Dylann Roof faces 33 federal charges, including hate crimes, obstruction of religion, and firearms charges in the gun slayings of nine black members of a Bible study at Charleston's historic Emanuel African Methodist Episcopal Church.

(U) Texas – 34 Immigrants Unloaded from Back of Tractor-Trailer at Weatherford Truck Stop

(U) Weatherford – Nearly three dozen immigrants in the country illegally were dropped off at a Weatherford truck stop over the weekend. Weatherford police were called Sunday to the Truck & Travel about a tractor-trailer that had unloaded several people. Officers found immigrants in the truck stop's parking lot and on the road nearby, and eventually detained 31 adults and three juveniles. Police said all

(U) INTERNATIONAL*(U) Bangladesh – Bangladesh Police Arrest 8,500 in Massive Three-Day Operation

(U) Dhaka - Bangladesh police made another 3,245 arrests in the last 24 hours, including 34 alleged extremists. This raised the number of total arrests since the force launched a massive operation on Friday against extremist groups responsible for a wave of targeted attacks on minorities to more than 8,500. The 34 alleged extremists were arrested between Sunday morning and Monday, raising the total number of radical Islamic detainees to 119, deputy police inspector general Shahidur Rahman said. They were among the more than 3,200 suspects apprehended on outstanding arrest warrants, drugs charges and illegal possession of firearms.

(U) France – French Police Attacker Pledged Allegiance to ISIL

(U) Paris - A man who stabbed a police commander and police administrator to death at their home in a Paris suburb pledged loyalty to the leader of the Islamic State of Iraq and the Levant (ISIL) and had a list of other targets, including rappers, journalists, police officers and public officials, the Paris prosecutor said today. The attacker, Larossi Abballa, made the declaration of allegiance to ISIL leader Abu Bakr al-Baghdadi in exchanges with officers during a three-hour standoff last night before he was eventually killed by police. Abballa was responding to ISIL calls to "kill non-believers where they live," and with their families, authorities said.
